

FOUR WAYS TO EARN A "ZERO"

ON A PARSCORE FORM

1

The image shows a Scantron form with a grid for an ID number. The text "NO ID" is written in red across the grid.

NO BANNER
ID NUMBER WHATSOEVER
IN THE ID
NUMBER BOX

2

The image shows a Scantron form with a header that says "TEST FORM" and options A, B, C, and D. Below the header, the text "NO VERSION MARKED" is written in red.

NO VERSION MARKED ON A MULTIPLE VERSION TEST

3

USING THE WRONG FORM (i.e. 882-ES)

The image shows a Scantron form labeled "SCANTRON FORM NO. 882-ES". It includes a header with "IMPORTANT" instructions, a "TEST RECORD" table, and a large grid for marking answers.

4

USING A PEN INSTEAD OF A PENCIL